Addendum

1. In reference to paragraph 51 of my main report dated 1 February 1995 (S/1995/97), I wish to inform the Security Council that the cost of the expansion of the United Nations Angola Verification Mission is estimated at $383,100,000 for the initial 12-month period commencing 9 February 1995.

2. This estimate provides for 6,771 military contingent personnel, 350 military observers, 260 civilian police monitors, 336 international civilian staff, 343 locally recruited staff and 68 United Nations Volunteers.

3. A breakdown of the estimated financial requirements in paragraph 1 above is provided by main categories of expenditure, for information purposes, in the annex to the present addendum.

4. Should the Security Council decide to authorize the expansion of the Verification Mission, it would be my recommendation to the General Assembly that the costs relating thereto should be considered an expense of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations and that the assessments to be levied on Member States should be credited to the Special Account for UNAVEM.
